

savills

Thank you for your support

LandAid

In 2025, Savills raised £88,000 to end youth homelessness.

LandAid & Savills Partnership Highlights 2025

- 147 of you braved the elements at the LandAid SleepOut in February, spending a night under the stars to support young people facing homelessness. Together, you raised an incredible £39,000!
- Two runners took on the Race for LandAid on the hottest day of the year, raising over £400.
- Savills proudly sponsored and joined Indurent's London to Paris Cycle for LandAid, contributing £5,000.
- Savills attended the LandAid Gala Dinner 2025: Keys to the Future.
- A team of bakers hosted a Bake Sale for LandAid, raising over £450.

Savills contributed generously with:

- £35,000 annual partnership donation.
- An additional £1,500 through the Christmas Card Alternative campaign.

Pro Bono Programme

We are grateful for Savills' longstanding support. Teams are actively supporting 9 ongoing pro bono requests, including a major extension project for New Horizons Youth Centre, expanding vital services for young people experiencing homelessness in London.

Thank you for supporting LandAid

“

Savills' support for LandAid is remarkable. From generous donations to pro bono expertise and active involvement in our events, their commitment shines through. This partnership is helping us deliver real impact for young people facing homelessness, and we are deeply grateful for their dedication to our mission

Katie Stephenson, ”
Head of National Partnerships

Last year 118,000 young people were homeless or at risk of homelessness in the UK.

Your support helps us enable young people to break the cycle of homelessness and move on to a brighter and more stable future.

